Chapter 13 Connect to Today
Read pages 442 and 443 and fill in the following sections:

1. Which Renaissance idea do you think is important for us today?
   ____________________________________________________________
   ____________________________________________________________

2. What is suggested by Leonardo da Vinci’s idea of a future helicopter?
   ____________________________________________________________
   ____________________________________________________________

3. Why was the understanding of how blood circulates important to Renaissance doctors? __________________________________________
   ____________________________________________________________