Lesson 4-3 Homework Questions, part 2

Match the following. (Pages 134, 135)

1. Al-Idrisi          A philosopher who studied Plato and Aristotle
2. Al-Zahrawi         A book that told of the Jewish exodus from Egypt
3. Haggadah           Spanish-Jewish culture
4. Maimonides         Wrote medical encyclopedia
5. Sephardic          Studied geography and created maps
6. Ibn Rushd          Religious faith is supported by philosophy

Answer the following questions.

1. Identify at least three ways mathematicians put their learning to practical use. (Page 134)
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________

2. What contribution did Al-Idrisi make to the study of geography? (Page 134)
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________

3. What suggestions were made to improve doctor-patient relationships? (Page 135)
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________

4. What topics were covered by Al-Zahrawi’s 30 volume medical encyclopedia? (Page 135)
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________

5. How were many Jewish leaders involved in the government of Al-Andalus? (Page 136)
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________

6. What did the philosopher Maimonides write about? How did he influence religious faith? (Page 136)
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________