Lesson 7-1 Homework Questions, part 2

Answer the following questions.

Fill in the Cycle of Chinese Dynasties on page 218.

1. How did Yang Jian, the founder of the Sui (Sway) Dynasty take power? (Page 216)
   ___________________________________
   ___________________________________
   ___________________________________
   ___________________________________

2. How did Wendi make the Chinese feel more unified? (Page 217)
   a) He restored ___________________
      _______________________________
      _______________________________
   b) He reduced ___________________
      _______________________________
      _______________________________
      _______________________________

3. What public works did Wendi begin? Why were these projects important? (Page 217)
   ___________________________________
   ___________________________________
   ___________________________________
   ___________________________________
   ___________________________________

4. How did China expand during the Tang Dynasty? How is the Tang government described? (Page 218)
   ___________________________________
   ___________________________________
   ___________________________________
   ___________________________________
   ___________________________________
   ___________________________________

5. What is unique about each of the following Tang Emperors?
   a) Taizong: ___________________________________________________________
      ___________________________________________________________________
   b) Wu Zhao: _________________________________________________________
      ___________________________________________________________________
   c) Xuanzong: _________________________________________________________
      ___________________________________________________________________