Lesson 7-2 Homework Questions, part 1

Identify the following vocabulary words with their definitions:

a) imperial  b) bureaucracy  c) scholar-official

1. _____ Using wooden blocks with enough characters to print entire pages
2. _____ Related to an empire
3. _____ Hard white ceramic
4. _____ Government divided into departments
5. _____ Educated person with a government position
6. _____ Small block of metal or wood with a single raised letter

1. What ideas did the Tang Dynasty learn from the Sui dynasty? (Page 223)

________________________________________
________________________________________
________________________________________

3. What rules were included in the new code of law? How many years was the code of law in effect? (Page 224)

________________________________________
________________________________________
________________________________________

4. What did the state exam test? (Page 224)

________________________________________
________________________________________
________________________________________

5. Where did most of the government workers come from? Why? (Page 224)

________________________________________
________________________________________
________________________________________

6. How did the Song Dynasty improve the exam system? (Page 224)

________________________________________
________________________________________
________________________________________