Lesson 7-2 Homework Questions, part 3

Answer the following questions.

1. Why were the following considered among the Chinese the greatest poets of all time? (Page 227)

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Poet</th>
<th>What they wrote about</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Li Bai</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Du Fu</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Wang Wei</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

2. What types of art were produced during the Tang and Song Dynasties? What did Song painters say about the use of black? (Page 227)

____________________________________________
____________________________________________
____________________________________________
____________________________________________

5. How did each of the following inventions influence the world? (Page 228)
   a) Paper-making:
      ______________________________________
      ______________________________________
      ______________________________________
   b) Gunpowder:
     ______________________________________
     ______________________________________
     ______________________________________
   c) Compass:
     ______________________________________
     ______________________________________
     ______________________________________

3. What technological progress did the Chinese make due to the love of learning? (Page 227)

True porcelain is made from petuntze, a stone containing feldspar that is ground very fine, and kaolin, a white clay. Porcelain is fired at a higher temperature than other types of pottery and is extremely hard. It is not porous and therefore, does not have to be glazed.

4. What two types of printing methods were developed? How did they work? (Page 228)

____________________________________________
____________________________________________
____________________________________________

6. How is porcelain different than other types of pottery?

___________________________________________

___________________________________________